Is there anything else you would like to tell us?

Make your voice heard – we want to know what you think

If you have something good to say about the people who work with you or if something is making you unhappy or bothering you, you can speak to your independent reviewing officer, your social worker or an advocate.

My social worker has given me information on how to tell someone I'm unhappy or make a complaint.

I know that I can call the Children's Rights Service for free, on 0800 6527212

They will listen to what I have to say and help me to make a complaint if I want to, or help me find an advocate.
